

Backbone components (implemented as base classes) of the Fractal framework. Implement strict framework logic.

Custom user-defined part (derived from the base classes) built on top of the Fractal skeleton. Contains all the user-defined data and functionality.

User-defined compute function object. May have side-effects on the Fractal data structure.